"This year is looking to be a massive year for road racing in Queensland, round 1 will see some exceptional talent turning wheels at Morgan Park Raceway. We love to see the juniors out on track, the future for these kids is bright and it's great to be able to host a round of their national championship as part of our own State Championship and Club series." - Paul Dawson, Club President

The 2013 Southern Downs Road Race Series had a high number of competitors, and was the premier championship in the state, so merging the the club series into the state championship was an obvious way to add value to competitors and makes it easier for those competitors that travel large distances across the state to manage their state title chase.

Spectator entry to round 1 is free, and competition will be fierce in every category. Directions to the circuit can be found by searching for "Morgan Park Raceway" in google maps.
